

a more sustainable payment relationship between the state and federal government.

Finally, last week, after repeated delays, this Administration released its notice of proposed rulemaking—in a form much weaker than it originally intended when I first started working with HCFA on this problem last spring. The proposed regulation is inadequate. Instead of stopping a burgeoning Medicaid spending scandal, the proposed regulation looks the other way and tolerates the abuse of the program.

The proposed regulation permits facilities to be reimbursed for providing services at a rate one and a half times that Medicare would have paid for a given service. Then states are free to pocket the difference between the payment level and the often much lower Medicaid payment rates through intergovernmental transfers. Not only does the regulation allow those who are exploiting the program to continue to do so, it also invites all others to come in and help themselves. The regulation permits the scam to continue while only modestly attempting to contain its magnitude.

Simply containing wasteful spending is not sufficient. The American taxpayer who pays the bills should not stand for it, nor should the beneficiaries who depend on the program. In fact, the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities, whose advocacy on social policy issues is well-known, agrees that the scam must be shut down or the long-term health of the program will be jeopardized.

Not only does the proposed regulation fail to protect the financial integrity of the Medicaid program, it also has a very low probability of ever being implemented. There is virtually no chance this Administration will be able to finalize the proposed regulation before it leaves office in January. Until the regulation is finalized, nothing changes. No abuser state has to modify its behavior one bit, and more and more states will be under pressure to take advantage of the windfall their neighbor states are enjoying. If anything, the White House action may spur greater abuse in the Medicaid program.

The Congressional Budget Office estimates that truly solving the problem will save taxpayers $127 billion over the next decade. The stakes are high and we owe it to the 40 million Medicaid beneficiaries to protect the program so it remains strong and viable for the years to come.

Accordingly, today I am introducing legislation that does what HCFA should have done but failed to do. My bill does not sanction abuse—it stops it. It closes the loophole, and treats non-state governmental facilities the same way state facilities are already treated. For those states with upper payment limits approved by HCFA already in place, it gives them two years to fully transition into compliance with the law. But no longer will schemes to exploit federal funding be tolerated. Even if HCFA is willing to look the other way, I am not. We must think about the long-term interests of the program and act now to stop the abuse. We should save the safety net for those that depend on it and save $127 billion over the next decade for the American taxpayer at the same time.

CERTIFICATION OF MEXICO

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on Foreign Relations be discharged from further consideration of S. Res. 366 and the Senate then proceed to its immediate consideration.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered. The clerk will report the resolution by title.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

A resolution (S. Res. 366) expressing the Sense of the Senate on the certification of Mexico.

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the resolution.

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the resolution be agreed to, the preamble be agreed to, the motion to reconsider be laid upon the table, and any statements relating to the resolution be printed in the RECORD.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

The resolution (S. Res. 366) was agreed to.

The preamble was agreed to.

The resolution, with its preamble, reads as follows:

S. RES. 366

Whereas Mexico will inaugurate a new government on 1 December 2000 that will be the first change of authority from one party to another;

Whereas the 2nd July election of Vincente Fox Quesada of the Alliance for Change marks an historic transition of power in open and fair elections;

Whereas Mexico and the United States share a 2,000-mile border, Mexico is the United States' second largest trading partner, and the two countries share historic and cultural ties;

Whereas drug production and trafficking are a threat to the national interests and the well-being of the citizens of both countries; and

Whereas United States-Mexican cooperation on drugs is a cornerstone for policy for both countries in developing effective programs to stop drug use, drug production, and drug trafficking: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That (a) the Senate, on behalf of the people of the United States—

(1) welcomes the constitutional transition of power in Mexico;

(2) congratulates the people of Mexico and their elected representatives for this historic change; and

(3) expresses its intent to continue to work cooperatively with Mexican authorities to promote broad and effective efforts for the health and welfare of United States and Mexican citizens endangered by international drug trafficking, use, and production.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that the incoming new governments in both Mexico and the United States must develop and implement a counterdrug program that more effectively addresses the official corruption, the increase in drug traffic, and the lawlessness that has resulted from illegal drug trafficking, and that a one-year waiver of the requirement that the President certify Mexico is warranted to permit both new governments time to do so.

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, before entering the closing statement, I yield to the distinguished Democratic assistant leader.

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I was off the floor. I appreciate very much the patience of my friend, the Senator from Virginia. I know he wanted to vacate the premises more than an hour ago. I am confident early in the morning we will be able to enter into an agreement relating to his bill.

Mr. WARNER. That would be the DOD conference on authorization.

Mr. REID. We are getting close to that. I apologize for not being able to do that tonight.

Mr. WARNER. No apology is needed. This bill has had a unique course through the Senate. I know of no one who has tried harder on a procedural basis to see that this bill has forward momentum than our distinguished colleague from Nevada. I hereby express my profound respect and thanks to him.

Mr. REID. I already bragged earlier in the day about my colleague and Senator LEVIN, and I would like that spread across the RECORD again.

Mr. President, Senator MCCAIN is on his way. We have a unanimous consent agreement that he asked for earlier in the day. We are now able to clear it.

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, given that, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. MCCAIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

AMENDING TITLE 49, U.S. CODE, TO REQUIRE REPORTS CONCERNING DEFECTS IN MOTOR VEHICLES

Mr. MCCAIN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate now proceed to the consideration of H.R. 5164, which is at the desk.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will state the bill by title.
